Julian Eugene Boggess is descended from the original English Boggess immigrant, Robert Boggus, to America about 1650. Much information has been captured by various Boggess family researchers about how the family line has progressed in America. Julian was the sixth great grandson of Robert Boggus.

Julian was born, raised and lived his life out in Macon, Noxubee County, Mississippi. His descendents represented in this report go to the fourth generation from himself. The current state of this report is still in the making and its distribution to family members is for the purpose of seeking their contributions of information to fill out the rich story.

Some of the people have fairly extensive narratives that I've been able to create from various sources or from reports of family members. Some of the notes have only brief revelations about a life and such certainly does not represent what might be desired as a whole life brief biographical sketch. It is my hope in producing this mid-state book that many of the family members to whom it is sent will be motivated and willing to compose scraps of information to be sent to me so that such may be incorporated into future publications. Also, new little people born into the family may not yet be reflected in my writings, and I would cherish that new information. Remember, the interest desired to serve in these writings is for birth, graduation, marriage and death dates and associated descriptions. Occupational and places of residence, together with just anything of family interest that should be highlighted as a high profile event live for someone.

Also invited are comments about statements or facts that may be in error or that there is some reason that you wish I would not include that in future publications. I want to try to be sensitive to those desires, and I want to hear from you. However I only promise to consider such proposals to change, and reserve an author's prerogative as to the form of the change or deletion that is made.

It is my desire to highlight as full a report of the Boggess family as is feasible and I want it to be a welcomed document for family members to have. So my request of all who receive this is to communicate what you would as soon as is feasible for you to do.

Descendants of Julian Eugene Boggess

Generation No. 1

1. JULIAN EUGENE¹⁰ BOGGESS (THOMAS SHELTON⁹, BENNETT⁸, BENNETT⁷, GILES SAMFORD⁶, BENNETT⁵, HENRY⁴, HENRY³ BOGGUS I, ROBERT², ENGLISH ANCESTOR¹ BOGGESS) was born Apr 06, 1888 in Macon, Noxubee County, Mississippi, and died Apr 01, 1967 in Columbus, Lowndes County, Mississippi. He married LAURA LILLIAN BINION Jun 02, 1910 in Macon, Noxubee Co., Mississippi, daughter of ALEXANDER BINION and LILLY MCLEOD. She was born Nov 30, 1890 in X-Prairie, Noxubee County, Mississippi, and died Sep 19, 1994 in Noxubee County, Mississippi.

Notes for JULIAN EUGENE BOGGESS:

Julian was a banker and was made head of the Bank of Macon at a young age. He kept his house and yard, which was located on Sweet Potato Hill, across Jefferson Street from the hospital in Macon, very neat and organized. The address is 609 North Jefferson.

The national championship of football in 1888, Julian's birth year, was Yale University. On Christmas eve, Mississippi steamboat fires killed 55 persons over the holiday weekend. The steamer "Kate Adams" burned, as did the steamer "John H. Hanna" two days later. And the famous poem in American literature, "Casey at the Bat" by Ernest Thayer was given its first public recitation by the popular actor De Wold Hopper at Wallacks's Theater in New York City.

Source: Gorton Carruth, "Encyclopedia of American Facts & Dates, Harper & Row, Publishers, New York, first edition 1817, 8th edition 1987, pages 348-350.

He raised peacocks in the 1950's, but gave it up when Highway 45 became so busy that several of his birds were killed by passing traffic. "I apparently gave him his nickname of "Paw-paw Peacock", or "Paw Peak" for short, having been so impressed by the display plumage of the male birds." said his grandson and third generation namesake, Julian Eugene (Gene) Boggess III.

Gene described his grandfather's home site this way in a Noxubee County RootsWeb Chatroom entry on April 27, 2004: "I can provide some information about Sweet Potato Hill. Sweet Potato Hill is the hill across the on the main street, running north and south (old U.S. Highway 45) from the hospital, at the north end of Macon. The house that is on the hill is owned by the Bo Minor's (or it was -- since their deaths, I suppose the house has been sold, or will be sold). Prior to that, it was owned by my grandfather, Julian Eugene Boggess, Sr. The house was called 'The Heights', and my grandmother, who never liked the name 'Sweet Potato Hill', also called the hill itself 'The Heights.' My grandfather was born in this house, so one could say that he was born 'atop Sweet Potato Hill.' The house is actually situated on a limestone ridge that extends south through the pecan orchard into the pasture behind the house. At the end of the ridge the ground rises slightly again to a crest before sloping down, and that crest is called 'Mt. Nebo.' I live in Columbus, Lowndes County, Mississippi, about 45 minutes north of Macon, and we would often visit my grandfather. My cousins and I used to harass our parents to be allowed to camp out on Mt. Nebo, which we did a number of times. I suppose that gave rise to my mother's nickname for me: Nebo Jones. "

Julian and his brother Tom formed the Frifth Lake Club and built a clubhouse in 1923. The land was sold for taxes in 1930; Julian bought it and gave it back to the club.

Julian later had a falling out with his brother, Tom, apparently over a horse, thinks Gene. However another view in the family is that the issue had to do with a banking matter and Tom. Julian did not want his children visiting Tom. Gene remembers his Dad going to Macon to visit his dad, then going by to visit his Uncle Tom and telling us not to blab to Paw Peak that they visited with Uncle Tom.

He was very strict and demanding of his children. There is a story of his catching his son smoking at age 13 (?) and throwing him out of the house. His daughter Beth argued him into taking his son back, then drove to Meridian where she found him asleep in the train station.

Julian died on April 1, 1967 at Columbus Hospital in Columbus, Lowndes County, Mississippe, after a lengthy battle with cancer of the colon. He had been a life-long rsident of Macon, Noxubee County, Mississippi.

Notes for LAURA LILLIAN BINION:

In 1890, when she was born, the United States Census indicated that we had slightly over 62,000,000 people, with the center of the population being 20 miles east of Columbus, Indiana. The 43rd and 44th states were admitted into the union, Idaho and Wyoming. The fictional character, Sherlock Holmes, was created by Arthur Conan Doyle, and made the official debut in the United States when "Lippincott's Monthly Magazine" published Doyle's story, "The Sign of the Four." Illiteracy in America was estimated at 13.3% of the population, a 3.7% decrease over the past decade. Sitting Bull, chief of the Sioux Indians, was killed in a skirmish with U.S. soldiers along the Grand River in South Dakota. And, last but not least, the Weather Bureau was created in the Department of Agriculture by an act of Congress on October 1. Previously, we had relied for government weather information from the Army Signal Corps.

Lillian, or better known as Danny, is said to be the one who gave the name of "The Heights" to the Boggess home in Macon, Noxubee County, Mississippi that she and Julian moved into in 1920. She derived it out of Psalm 78:69, "He built his sanctuary like the heights, like the earth that he established forever."

Patsy Boggess (Mrs. A. B.) Stephens, daughter of Lillian and Julian, was cited in the "Heights for sale" article in the November 11, 2003 issue of the Macon Beacon (Noxubee County, Mississippi) that her father had purchased the home from fellow Boggess heirs in 1920. She said he restored the house over a period of time and moved his family into it just shortly before she was born in 1925. Thomas Shelton (T. S.) Boggess, Jr. said to me that he had always heard that Julian's mother, Frances Ann Levina Barton, had given the home to the couple as a wedding gift. However, their marriage was in 1910. So, if it was a marriage gift, it was a decade late.

The cited "Heights" article in 2003 goes on to refer to a 1936 report on record by the Works Progress Administration about the historic homes of Macon, which says it was originally constructed in 1842 or perhaps as late as 1847 for the family of H. N. Spooner, who sold it the Gillespie family. It passed through the Augustus, Ballard, Bracy and to the Barton families before coming into the Boggess family in the 1880's, according to the article. However, apparently this is an error. We do not know when Uncle Julian became the owner of the home, but his 1888 birth makes it virtually impossible for him to have become the owner of it in the 1880's.

After Lillian's husband, Julian, died, the home was purchased by Bo and Ruth Minor, as they were moving into town from their Circle M Plantation. So, the Heights was a Boggess property for about a half of a century.

The Minor's performed significant restoration. After the Minor's had both died, their children placed the home for auction on November 15, 2003, seeking to receive about $300,000. This was apparently more than the Macon market could bear, and there were no bidders with a viable price.

Lillian was a Presbyterian. Her grandson, Bill (William George) shared with me a quote from Dany about an ink drawing of a large castle titled, "Dunvegan Castle." It was cited as the home of the clan of McLeod of Scotland. She said, "One of the boys born in that house came to America and his son was the father of my mother." That means the boy was Lillian's great grandfather. That boy's son was John F. McLeod, her grandfather, but we do not have earlier names.

Lillian obtained a legal separation from Julian when their youngest child left the house, although they never divorced. He did not mention her in his will. She served as house-mother to the KA fraternity at the University of Alabama for several years. She maintained her own apartment at her house in Columbus until, just a few years before her death, she moved to X-Prairie, Mississippi to live with her daughter Patricia Boggess Stevens and her husband, A. B. Stevens, Jr. Lillian is buried in the Odd Fellows Cemetery in Macon in the Binion section.

I wrote a poem in her memory when she graduated to heaven, and I learned later that it was read as a part of the memorial service for her. It's posted on the Internet:

She truly was a classic lady of the Boggess and Binion family lines.

2. ELIZABETH MAE¹¹ BOGCESS (JULIAN EUGENE¹⁰, THOMAS SHELTON⁹, BENNETT⁸, BENNETT⁷, GILES SAMFORD⁶, BENNETT⁵, HENRY⁴, HENRY³ BOGGUS I, ROBERT², ENGLISH ANCESTOR¹ BOGCESS) was born Apr 11, 1911 in Macon, Noxubee County, Mississippi, and died Dec 15, 2000 in Houston, Harris County, Texas. She married (1) EDWARD HERRICK HOFFMAN Sep 03, 1935 in Macon, Noxubee County, Mississippi, son of CHARLES HOFFMAN and JULIE FOX. He was born Mar 21, 1908 in River Edge, New Jersey³, and died Feb 20, 1995 in Guilford, Connecticut. She married (2) WALTER ALVIS PARISH Jun 04, 1955 in Houston, Harris County, Texas, son of PARISH and BAKER. He was born Oct 05, 1887, and died Jan 23, 1959 in Houston, Harris County, Texas. She married (3) OLAF LA COUR OLSEN Mar 26, 1960 in Houston, Harris County, Texas, son of AXEL OLSEN and ELLEN. He was born Jun 26, 1900, and died Jun 26, 1971 in Houston, Harris County, Texas.

Notes for ELIZABETH MAE BOGCESS:

Beth is known in the Julian Boggess family for having been an actress. There is a story that when one of her films (possibly named "Enlighten Thy Daughter") came to Macon, her conservative father, evidently embarrassed at the raciness of the film (although tame by today's standards), bought up all of the tickets so that no one could see the film.

She was born the same day as was Attila Jozsef (4/11/1905 - 12/3/1937), the Hungarian poet.

In her later years, residing in Houston, Texas I had several occasions to visit her in her lovely Tanglewood home. I'll always remember the time in the early 1990's when I visited my son, Taylor, who was living in Houston in his first employment after college. I'd asked him to phone Beth to see if we could drop by just to visit. He reported to me that she said to come over that evening, as they were having, what I thought, was an informal cook out at the house with some friends. I should have known better and should have talked with Beth to confirm details. When Taylor and I showed up informal picnic attire, shorts and all, we could see through the windows by the door, after we'd rung the door bell, the guests were more formally clad. Well, I told Taylor we needed to retreat quickly, as we'd have no place in that setting. However, before we could get off the front porch, Barbara caught us and insisted that we come in. Embarrassingly, Taylor and I entered to meet the gathered guests. During the course of the evening, I made occasion to express to men that I was embarrassed to be attired inappropriately. However, they all assured me that they had rather had been dressed as was I! So, I guess it worked out OK, but, I never did invite Beth's evaluation of our sartorial splendors!

Beth's marriages produced a long name for this talented entertainer: Elizabeth Mae Boggess Hoffman Parish Olsen. She is a first cousin of my esteemed father-in-law, T. S. Boggess, Jr. He always liked Beth the best of his female cousins, because she was the most social and liked to go to the dances, which matched his personality as well.

married second Elizabeth Mae Boggess on 4 June 1955 in Houston, Texas. They had no issue.

When Al came to visit Columbus, he used to do funny things to amuse the Boggess children, such as throwing quarters on the floor and watching the kids scramble for the loose change. He also would smoke his cigarette backwards, with the lighted end in his mouth. This family trivia was contributed to me by Gene Boggess, the Mississippi genealogist for the Boggess family, and a resident of Columbus.

Notes for PATRICIA VASHTI BOGGESS:

Patsy and actress Gloria DeHaven were born the same year.

Patsy and her family have lived for many years on a nice farm in the northeast section of Noxubee County, Mississippi. Her husband's great grandfather, Thomas Stevens, built this magnificent old south home shortly after the War Between The States, probably about 1870. This house is still occupied by Patsy as of 2004. My father-in-law, my wife and I visited Patricia, on July 6, 2004. The house is in wonderful restored and maintained shape. It is located in Northeast Noxubee County on Gillispie Road, seven tenths of a mile off Deerbrook Road. Deerbrook Road runs north two and a half miles from Prairie Point. Prairie Point runs five miles east from US HWY 45, the by-pass highway around Macon.

Jonathan pursued a Phd program in mathematics at Indiana University in Bloomington. He won a 3-year fellowship there.

Marriage Notes for JONATHAN BOGGESS and DONAN ECKLES:

Their marriage took place at Whitehall in Columbus, Mississippi during the time that Jonathan was working on this PhD thesis at Indiana University in Bloomington. This was the fine old antebellum home of his Boggess grandparents, which was undergoing fresh renovation that spring by his uncle and aunt, the then current owners of the home (Joe & Carol Boggess). This, of course, was the home in which Jonathan's father, Julian Eugene (Gene) Boggess III grew up with his five siblings.

The marriage date is an date anniversary of significance. In 1850, Zachary Taylor, the 12th president of the United States, died after serving only 16 months in office. President Taylor, you may recall, was the father-in-law of Jefferson Davis, formerly his United States Secretary of Defense and subsequently President of the Confederate States of America. President Davis is the Uncle of my great, great aunt, Susanah Elizabeth Davis Abney, wife of James Addison Abney of Lufkin, Texas.

Notes for GWENDOLYN KATHRYN MELISSA ELANOR BOGGESS:

Wendy was born the same day as former President Jimmy Carter's presidential library and museum were dedicated in Atlanta, Fulton County, Georgia, on the 62nd birthday of President Carter. This was also the 779th birthday of English King Henry III, my 11th cousin, 22 times removed on my mother's side of the family.

The "Elanor" in Wendy's name is spelled correctly; she is named for Sam Gamgee's daughter, who herself was named for a flower, in Lord of the Rings. My thanks to Wendy's father, Gene Boggess, for this enlightenment. She wants to be a psychiatrist, for a lot of the same reasons that her Mom wanted to be a Christian counselor.

In 2003-2004, she was a senior in high school at the Mississippi School for Math and Science. Her interest is to attend Emory University to to major in pediatric psychiatry.

Bill is missionary to France. He and his family live outside of Paris and has established a church in Montigny-le-Bretonneux. Their first child was born in Dallas when Bill was a student at Dallal Theological Seminary. Their other children were born in France. His e-mail address is william.boggess@wanadoo.fr. They are sent out by a missionary organizatin known as TEAM, based out of Wheaton, Illinois.

His father was buried on Bill's 30th birthday. The world-famous attack of September 11, 2001 on the World Trade Center in New York City and on the Pentagon in Washington, D.C. occurred on Bill's 50th birthday.

In 2005, a delightful crossing of paths occurred with Bill as he was back in the United States at Dallas Seminary, recruiting for new staff to join him in the mission work over in France. The young lady he selected to come work an internship in France was Linda Guest, who is a friend of our daughter, Tiffany Lenn Sharpe Westmoreland, from back in high school days! Suzanne, Tiffany and I attend her seminary graduation and post graduation reception in June, 2005. Bill did not know if Linda's long time connection with our family until after their interview.

Benjamin's French education was a real experience in discipline. I enjoyed receiving in July 2005 his father's description of his graduation occasion:

"Our son, Benjamin, just got his French high school diploma on Monday the 4th. No matter what his grades were all year long, (they were good), he has to pass an end-of-the-year series of exams to get his diploma, the Bac. The exams last for one week at the end of his junior year and again at the end of the senior year. Each test lasts three hours. No multiple choice, no true-false, no fill in the blank. All are essay questions (except for the oral exam for his two languages). Well, he was delighted to get his diploma with lots of room to spare. So we rejoice with him."

Notes for ELIZABETH LEE BOGGESS:

Our daughter, Tiffany Lenn Sharpe, while she still was a young unmarried CPA traveling around some in her work, had occasion in the early 1990's to work a few weeks in El Paso, Texas. She took that opportunity to find the Sitters family and to get acquainted. Tiffany is a second cousin, once removed to Elizabeth. Tiffany's mother, Suzanne Margaret Boggess Sharpe, is a second cousin to Elizabeth.

Tiffany tells the story about when she was enjoying a fine dinner with the Sitters when a rain shower blew up. All the children departed the dinner table and ran outside in the rain. It seems that rain was so infrequent out there in El Paso, that the children greeted it as a special occasion!

11. ANN SHELTON¹² BOGGESS (JULIAN EUGENE¹¹, JULIAN EUGENE¹⁰, THOMAS SHELTON⁹, BENNETT⁸, BENNETT⁷, GILES SAMFORD⁶, BENNETT⁵, HENRY⁴, HENRY³ BOGGUS I, ROBERT², ENGLISH ANCESTOR¹ BOGGESS) was born Jul 23, 1955 in Columbus, Lowndes County, Mississippi, and died Jul 10, 2005 in Corinth, Alcorn County, Mississippi²⁰. She married (1) LUTHER DANIEL CLARK. She married (2) WENDELL ALFRED RAY Aug 18, 1990 in Columbus, Lowndes County, Mississippi.

Notes for ANN SHELTON BOGGESS:

A note from Julian Eugene (Gene) Boggess III received in June 2005 reports on Shelly. "A couple of weekends ago we went up to Michie, Tennessee, to see my sister, Shelley Clark, and she is not doing well. Her breast cancer has metastasized into her chest cavity and making it hard for her to breathe; she is now on supplemental oxygen.

After her July 14th funeral, Gene wrote this to me: "Sorry not to have had time to respond to your email. Jonathan and Donan (Gene's son & new daughter-in-law) were married at Whitehall on Saturday (the Boggess antebellum family home in Columbus).

However, on Sunday my sister Shelley (Ann Shelton Boggess Clark) died. We have had family in town for the visitation (Wednesday) and funeral and burial (Thursday). T.S. came up to Corinth, Alcorn County, Mississippi, from Macon for the funeral, and Bill and Lillian Young came Wednesday for the visitation. A number of my cousins from the Slattery side of the family also came, as well as a lot of Dan's (Shelley's husband, Luther Daniel Clark) family."

In his usual character, Gene followed up with another communication that gave more detail worth capturing here:

"Shelley died last Sunday sometime during evening church services, which Dan was attending at Christ United Methodist Church in Corinth, Mississippi. When he arrived back home, in Michie, Tennessee, (just a few miles north of the state line from Corinth), he found that Shelley had passed away. Shelley had attended Wednesday Bible Study, but said she didn't feel up to going to church that Sunday.

"The visitation was at Christ United Methodist Church Wednesday evening at 5:00 PM. Shelley's casket was open, and was located right in front of the pulpit. We spent most of our time back in the gym, which had a number of tables and chairs, and was adjacent to the kitchen.

"The funeral service was also at Christ UMC, in the sanctuary at 1:00 PM on Thursday. T. S. Boggess, Jr. drove all the way from Macon, Noxubee County, Mississippi and back by himself. (note for the reader: T. S., my father-in-law, was age 93 at this time). I barely got a chance to greet him. I hope he knows how much we appreciate his coming.

"After the funeral service, many of us drove to Ripley, Tennessee, about 40 miles southwest of Corinth, for the graveside service, which was held at Jacob's Chapel Cemetery, about 6 miles S of Ripley. Jacobs's Chapel had been started by Dan Clark's grandfather, and the cemetery, which was across the road from Jacob's Chapel, was located on land that Dan's grandfather had originally built a school on. Dan's first wife is buried there, along with his father and some other relatives, plus many late parishioners of Jacob's Chapel Church. It started raining about 5 minutes after we left the cemetery.

"Dan plans to be buried between his two wives. I asked him, what if he remarries? He says he will never remarry. But I noticed there is room for another plot above where his will be.

"I am feeling sad about Shelley's death. I think I am taking it a bit harder than my mother's death, because my sister, Shelly, wasn't even 50 years old yet.

The very same day that Thomas was born, ten bombs exploded in quick succession across the commuter rail network in Madrid, Spain, killing 191 people and wounding more than 2,000 in an attack linked to al-Qaida. This event had an even more disappointing effect on the national elections which occurred just days after when the government that had become allied with the United States in the Iraq War was voted out of office, a supposed reason for which the terrorists exploded the bombs.

What does it mean to be a third cousin, twice removed?

The “removed” term signifies the number of generations that one is removed from the initially described relationship.

You should be able to understand what it is to have a first cousin. That is the child of one of your parent’s siblings. If your first cousin, Robert, has a child named Charlie, your relationship to that Charlie is as a first cousin, once removed.

If your first cousin Robert has grandchild, then your relationship to that grandchild is as a first cousin, twice removed.

Concerning your first cousin, once removed named Charlie. If you have a child, your child’s relationship to Charlie is as a second cousin. Children of first cousins are second cousins to each other.

Likewise, the grandchildren of first cousins are third cousins to each other.

If you are a third cousin to Sally who has a grand child named William, your relationship to William is as a third cousin, twice removed.

What is it to be a Half?

What is a half brother? Or, what is a half cousin?

This is the situation when one parent is a common ancestor of two people, but they have another spouse of that common ancestor as the other parent.

For example: Your mother dies and your father remarries, producing more children. Those children from the second marriage are your half brothers or half sisters. Similarly, if your uncle dies and your aunt remarries, producing children in the second marriage, those second marriage children are your half first cousins.

Frith Lake Club A Cultural Tradition of Noxubee County

By D. A. Sharpe

One of the social pillars of Noxubee County and the City of Macon is the Frith Lake Club. It has a colorful and unique history of over seventy years, which this article is intended to explore. My interview in June of 2003 with my father-in-law, T. S. Boggess, Jr. (Mr. T. S.) is the source of most of this material. He has served as President of the club since 1975.

There is uncertainty as to the origin of the name, Frith. There was a hotel operating in Macon circa the turn of the century (that is 1900, not 2000). One of the privileges offered by the hotel was to take hotel guests on day trips down to this lake to fish. It apparently became known as Frith Lake, and some conjecture is that Mr. Frith may have been the hotel owner or manager.

Frith Lake is located about five miles south of Macon on U.S. Hwy 45. An unmarked gravel road going east from the highway winds around for about three miles over to the Frith Lake grounds. Anyone not familiar with where Frith Lake is would have difficulty finding the way without help. The lake is unusually deep, with some claiming it is formed over a large sink hole. One time in the 1990's the Forest Ranger had a captured alligator that Mr. Boggess gave permission to loose into the lake. This helped reduce the somewhat bothersome snake population around the lake, but the alligator apparently took to the road sometime later and most probably headed for the Noxubee River, which is adjacent to the lake.

The original tract was ten acres of virgin pine woods, with a sprinkling of aged Cyprus trees lining the lake and the river. Later, acreage was added and today it is fourteen acres.

The social birth of Frith Lake began in 1920 when four Noxubee County gentlemen went together to purchase the land around the lake for the purpose of a social club. They were Mr. Thomas S. Boggess (Mr. Tom), Lloyd L. Shannon, Julian Eugene Boggess and an attorney, Mr. Len L. Martin. The two Boggess men were brothers, and Mr. Tom was the father of Mr. T. S.

A club was formed with an initial closed membership of 20 or 25 (memory eludes us). It was closed in the sense that a limit was set on the number of the members and that any new members had to be voted upon by the membership for approval when member vacancies occurred or when, over the years, the membership limit was raised.

The initial fee for membership was fifty cents a month. The mantle piece of this endeavor was to be a dance club, a social phenomenon typical of those days in the roaring 1920's. The initial unit of the club house was completed in October of 1923. It basically consisted of a housed dance floor room with peripheral screened in side rooms for food preparation and seating. It's the main entrance room today where the fireplace is located. Of course, more additions have been added over the years to reach its size of today.

The socialization began with summertime use as a camp and dance occasion. The weekends were the height of the festivities. Usually a live orchestra was engaged to play. Often this was a local band. Early dances, before a club house was erected, took place on a leveled off area of ground with pine straw forming its base. In those days, the Noxubee River was good for swimming recreation, which many enjoyed.

The camp cook was a black man named Lidge (sp?) Williams. His name may have been a contraction from the Old Testament prophet's name, Elijah. He delighted the people with mighty good chow.

The families would come out to Frith Lake and pitch campsites to live a few weeks in the summer. The women and children lived in their tents and the men lived in their tents. These were somewhat large community type tents. There was a chow hall tent where they all gathered to dine. The women and children would stay during the weekdays while the men folk returned to work, returning in the evenings and on the weekends.

This pattern of activity continued through the 1920's, but the economic depression of the nation in the 1930's reflected in a decline for this club. The financial capabilities of the club and the members drifted down so far that the property was auctioned off at the Noxubee County Courthouse for $37 back taxes. One of the original four founders, Mr. Julian Eugene Boggess, stepped forward to purchase the property for the back taxes and donated it back to the club. So, he saved the day for the club at that point.

The camping seemed to discontinue in the early 1930's in favor of merely coming out to the club house for dance and other social occasions. About that time, it was started to be called Frith Lake Country Club.

Edwin Mason Murphy, Jr. and James Horton gave leadership to the club in the 1930's and the 1940's. Part of this time was when Edwin was Mayor of Macon. About 1960, the Pine View Country Club, largely under the leadership of Dr. Morris, was formed, and that resulted in some drainage of members from the Frith Lake Country Club. Later the "Country" was dropped and since then it has been know as Frith Lake Club.

Mr. T. S. (Thomas Shelton Boggess, Jr.) retired from his work at the University of Georgia and returned to the family farm on Magnolia Drive near Macon in 1973. It wasn't long before the Club invited him to rejoin. He was elected President in 1975 and has served the longest single tenure of leadership for the Frith Lake Club.

Mr. George Winter, a band leader from Alabama, has been a centerpiece of the Christmas holiday dances for each year since about 1978 (neither he nor we can remember for sure). This has kept alive the lively element of Frith Lake Club being a dance club.

Today, the Club has a thriving membership of 60 and meets together about eight months out of the year. Two major events are on their annual calendar. The Fourth of July bar-b-que picnic is one, and the annual Christmas season holiday dance on Friday evening after Thanksgiving is the other.
