Maud Foote Yates married Edwin Mason Murphey, Jr., who is a first cousin of my father-in-law, Thomas Shelton Boggess, Jr.

Maud symbolized a rich Southern heritage and culture as she lived her life in Macon, Noxubee County, Mississippi. Our family always visited with she and Edwin when we were in the County for visiting our Boggess family. Her elegant entertaining and social grace was always a wonder to behold, and we enjoyed participating in life with Maud.

Maud and Edwin often dined with us at the Boggess family farm on Thanksgivings. Maud continued faithful attendance at the hallowed family time for each Thanksgiving after Edwin graduated to heaven.

Maud and Edwin bore no children. However, this book consolidates some ancestry information on Maud's side of the family that is interesting and is presented to you genealogy students who might wish to make note of such family line.

Ancestors of Maud Foote Yates

Generation No. 1

1. Maud Foote Yates, born Nov 08, 1904 in Macon, Noxubee County, Mississippi¹; died May 19, 2001 in Macon, Noxubee County, Mississippi¹. She was the daughter of 2. Eliot Valentine Yates and 3. Calvin Deupree Patty. She married (1) Edwin Mason Murphey, Jr. Apr 29, 1930 in Macon, Noxubee County, Mississippi². He was born Jul 06, 1904, and died Sep 29, 1988 in Macon, Noxubee County, Mississippi. He was the son of Edwin Mason Murphey and Clara Virginia Boggess.

Notes for Maud Foote Yates:

Maud was born the very same year as was Ray Bolger (1/10/1904 - 1/15/1987), the American dancer and actor, notably known in the 1939 film classic as Hunk, the Scarecrow in "The Wizzard of Oz."

Maud graduated from Macon High School, Noxubee County, Mississippi in 1923. Early on, she experienced some limitations regarding sight and hearing, part of which caused her to labor longer before achieving a degree from the Mississippi State College for Women in 1928. The Yates family, a banking family, was an educated and cultured family. Maud and her two sisters traveled the world together several times, and achieved quite a breadth of experience about the world and history.

Maud was very generous in her will, leaving a six figure amount to her Macon Presbyterian Church, the church that bordered her back yard. The Church used part of the funds to acquire a wonderful grand piano for worship in the sanctuary.

My father-in-law, T. S. Boggess, Jr., served her estate of co-executor with the attorney who wrote the will.

Edwin graduated from Vanderbilt University, 1927. He was a member of the Kappa Alpha fraternity. His life time career was selling of insurance, and he did well. Also, being a cotton buyer was included in his occupational experience. He served a term as mayor of Macon, Mississippi in the mid 1930's. Golfing was a favorite pass time for him, and he pursued music through the piano with a passion. His pride and joy was the Steinway piano in his home. It ultimately was passed on to Helen, Maud's administrator who managed Maud's finances for those years after Edwin died.

During the 1930's, he gave leadership to the Frith Lake Country Club as its President. He also had an interest in family genealogy, having hired a professional researcher at one point to pursue the Boggess ancestry in the Huntsville, Madison County, Alabama area. He was the one who originally motivated me to investigate the Boggess ancestry.

Notes for MAUD FOOTE YATES:

Maud was born the very same year as was Ray Bolger (1/10/1904 - 1/15/1987), the American dancer and actor, notably known in the 1939 film classic as Hunk, the Scarecrow in "The Wizzard of Oz."

Maud graduated from Macon High School, Noxubee County, Mississippi in 1923. Early on, she experienced some limitations regarding sight and hearing, part of which caused her to labor longer before achieving a degree from the Mississippi State College for Women in 1928. The Yates family, a banking family, was an educated and cultured family. Maud and her two sisters traveled the world together several times, and achieved quite a breadth of experience about the world and history.

Maud was very generous in her will, leaving a six figure amount to her Macon Presbyterian Church, the church that bordered her back yard. The Church used part of the funds to acquire a wonderful grand piano for worship in the sanctuary.

My father-in-law, T. S. Boggess, Jr., served her estate of co-executor with the attorney who wrote the will.

Burial: Macon, Noxubee County, Mississippi

Executor: 2001, Thomas S. Boggess, Jr.

Individual Note: Her family were bankers

Notes for EDWIN MASON MURPHEY, JR.:

By some accounts, the ice cream cone was invented by Charles E. Menches during the Louisiana Purchase Exposition in St. Louis the year that Edwin was born.

Edwin graduated from Vanderbilt University, 1927. He was a member of the Kappa Alpha fraternity. His life time career was selling of insurance, and he did well. Also, being a cotton buyer was included in his occupational experience. He served a term as mayor of Macon, Mississippi in the mid 1930's. Golfing was a favorite pass time for him, and he pursued music through the piano with a passion. His pride and joy was the Steinway piano in his home. It ultimately was passed on to Helen, Maud's administrator who managed Maud's finances for those years after Edwin died.

During the 1930's, he gave leadership to the Frith Lake Country Club as its President. He also had an interest in family genealogy, having hired a professional researcher at one point to pursue the Boggess ancestry in the Huntsville, Madison County, Alabama area. He was the one who originally motivated me to investigate the Boggess ancestry.

What does it mean to be a third cousin, twice removed?

The “removed” term signifies the number of generations that one is removed from the initially described relationship.

You should be able to understand what it is to have a first cousin. That is the child of one of your parent’s siblings. If your first cousin, Robert, has a child named Charlie, your relationship to that Charlie is as a first cousin, once removed.

If your first cousin Robert has grandchild, then your relationship to that grandchild is as a first cousin, twice removed.

Concerning your first cousin, once removed named Charlie. If you have a child, your child’s relationship to Charlie is as a second cousin. Children of first cousins are second cousins to each other.

Likewise, the grandchildren of first cousins are third cousins to each other.

If you are a third cousin to Sally who has a grand child named William, your relationship to William is as a third cousin, twice removed.

What is it to be a Half?

What is a half brother? Or, what is a half cousin?

This is the situation when one parent is a common ancestor of two people, but they have another spouse of that common ancestor as the other parent.

For example: Your mother dies and your father remarries, producing more children. Those children from the second marriage are your half brothers or half sisters. Similarly, if your uncle dies and your aunt remarries, producing children in the second marriage, those second marriage children are your half first cousins.
